

Kenya

The Masai People

CAPITAL CITY: Nairobi

LANGUAGE: Swahili

CURRENCY: Kenyan Shilling

VISA: SA passport holders do not require a visa. All other passport holders to check with local authorities

TIME DIFFERENCE: GMT + 3
(SA time + 1hr)

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS: Yellow Fever certificate is required. Anti-Malaria precautions are recommended.

chance to experience a natural world unchanged by the passage of time.

This is a land of endless potential for the wildlife enthusiast. From great migratory herds of the open savannah to an incredible abundance of birdlife, from the depths of a tropical rainforest to the depths of the Indian Ocean teeming with fish, this a world of natural wonders. A safari into the wilds of Kenya is a journey into nature at its purest. Everywhere you look there is a profusion of life.

The wildlife is the prime attraction of Kenya safaris, that take place in some of Africa 's most well known national parks including the Masai Mara, Tsavo, Amboseli, and Lake Nakuru. A Kenya safari contains a mosaic of different cultures and traditions. The people have the natural ability to make every traveller feel at home - 'Karibu' a Swahili word meaning 'welcome' is often heard!

WHAT THINGS COST

These prices are an average price and may vary according to hotels & seasons.

Bottle of Wine	US$17	R120
Beer	US$1.70	R12
Bottle of Water	US$1.40	R10
Coffee / Tea	US$2.50	R18
Cold Drinks	US$1.40	R10
Toasted Sandwich	US$10	R70
Dinner at Hotel	US$24	R170

BEST TIME TO TRAVEL

The high season is during the Migration and falls between May and August. This is also when it is coolest and driest.

The dry season starts in June and lasts until November. This is the most expensive time of the year to visit. November to March is considered a low season and temperatures are generally quite high, peaking at 28 degrees in February.

Zebras in Masai Mara

Kenya is the home of the safari. The boundless wilderness and big game of this region has long attracted adventure seekers from all over the globe. No other African country can boast such an incredible range of landscapes, unique geographical features and species. Kenya offers the visitor a

The open savannah