

Far East

Singapore

An island-state in Southeast Asia. It has a modern, affluent city and the world's busiest port. Combining a lush tropical climate, with tasty food, good shopping and a vibrant nightlife, this Garden City makes a great stopover or springboard into the region.

Bangkok

The port city of Laem Chabang is your gateway to Bangkok, Thailand's glittering capital. This "City of Angels" is a lustrous city of immense Oriental charm, festooned with ornate temples, shrines and a lacework of canals.

Vung Tau

A beach resort about an hour and a half by road from Ho Chi Minh City. From Vung Tau you can visit the Mekong Delta, Yagon, the Temples of Bagan and Ho Chi Minh City (Saigon).

Nha Trang

The resort town of Nha Trang is becoming more popular in recent years. Well known for its miles of beaches and the friendliness of its people.

Da Nang

Vietnam's fourth-largest city and the principal port in the central part of the country, is on the threshold of becoming a major destination for tourists, thanks to some unique attractions, spectacular scenery and friendly locals.

Ha Long Bay

Ha Long" means "where the dragon plunged into the sea," a mythical event fabled to have created this spectacular bay in the Gulf of Tonkin, dotted with 3,000 islands, honeycombed with grottos and surrounded by secluded beaches.

Sanya

The most southern point of China and is often called "Oriental Hawaii" or "Hawaii of the East," due to its tropical climate and luscious scenery.

Hong Kong

A bustling port and commercial centre. Places worth visiting include Tsimshatsui complex, the harbour and its magnificent skyline, night markets, Ocean Park, the floating restaurants and much more.

Keelung

Located in the northern part of Taiwan, and a well-known harbour, Keelung has rich seashores and plenty of historic sites as well as mountains and rivers.

Kobe

Serene gardens, ponds and ancient shrines, Kobe also hosts many festivals amidst a labyrinth of futuristic towers, skyscrapers, restaurants, shopping and the Akashi Kaiyo - the world's longest suspension bridge.

Tokyo

The Port of Tokyo's Harumi Passenger Ship Terminal is one of Japan's most convenient terminals with ideal access to any of the scenic sites of Japan. You can easily get to Tokyo's sightseeing spots, whether by bullet train, highway, or air.

Nagasaki Bay

About 5 kilometres long and sheltered on all sides, is one of the best natural harbours of Japan. Moving stairways, fountains & goldfish give it the air of a cultural Disneyland.

Shanghai

Situated on the banks of the Yangtze River Delta in East China, Shanghai is the eighth largest city in the world. Known as the 'Paris of the East' with the best skyline in Asia, reflecting both Oriental and European influences.

Penang

An island off the northern part of the west coast of Peninsular Malaysia. Penang is one of Malaysia's main tourist draws with its rich multicultural history, full of colonial and Chinese influences.

Kuala Lumpur

Or "KL" as it is commonly known, is the focal point of new Malaysia. KL's bustling streets, modern office towers, and cosmopolitan air project symbolizes Malaysia's leap into the future.

Phuket

Wonderful beaches, fascinating temples, gracious hospitality, endless bargains. Pulsating nightlife. All this on Asia's most famous island.

Langkawi

Enjoy Langkawi's recreational facilities, duty-free shopping, alfresco dining as well as its Mediterraneanesque waterfront boardwalk at Awana Porto Malai.

Sihanoukville

Also known as Kompong Som, is Cambodia's only port. At present Sihanoukville's main attraction is the great snorkelling and diving.

Xiamen

China's cleanest and most beautiful seaport city is located on the southeastern coast of Fujian Province.

