

Game Drive

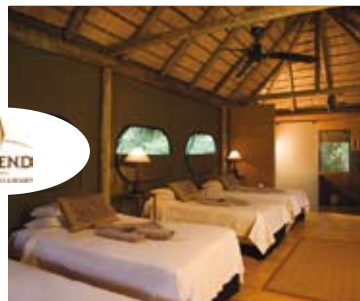

This is the land of Mapungubwe, site of South Africa's first ancient city, now a World Heritage Site. A destination with a rich wildlife heritage, and a wealth of historical and cultural haunts. It's a place of legends and myths, where the spirit of Modjadji, the revered rain queen, can be found. It's also home to Warmbaths, famous for its therapeutic waters, the Waterberg wetlands, with spectacular scenery and wildlife, and several caves yielding fascinating examples of San rock art. Hoedspruit is an ideal spot from which to explore the famous Kruger National Park.

Enjoy fly fishing, swimming and hiking in the spectacular Magoebaskloof Mountains. Visit the breathtaking Waterberg's game and nature reserves. See sediments, fossils, bones and artifacts at the National Heritage Site at Makapan's Valley.
