LOCATION
Located on the 2nd largest island in the Seychelles, Praslin, at Anse Bois De Rose, on the South west coast. The hotel is 8km (15 minute drive) from the airport. Surrounded by nature and named after the unique Coco de Mer Palm tree which, although extremely rare, occurs in abundance in the tropical forests surrounding the hotel. The hotel lies in over 200 acres of natural beauty on the edge of the Indian Ocean. The spacious rooms are decorated in cool colours overlooking the sea and offer spectacular views of the surrounding islands, forested mountainsides and glorious sunsets. The restaurant serves Creole and International cuisine as well as barbecues and themed buffet dinners. There are many water activities on offer as well as bikes to rent to see more of the island. Cycle to the Vallee de Mai Forest Reserve, a Unesco World Heritage site, or take a boat ride to the charming nearby island of La Digue where local transport is by ox-cart or bicycle.

ACCOMMODATION
The resort offers 22 standard rooms, 18 superior rooms and 12 Junior Suites (at the Black Parrot). All rooms are spacious, modern and comfortable. The rooms are open and airy and all room categories are sea-facing. Interconnecting rooms are available in superior category only. Please note: Rooms include an in-room bath. There is however also a separate bathroom with a shower. NB - Children under 14 years are not permitted at The Black Parrot Suites but are welcome in the Standard and Superior rooms.
