CAMBRIDGE/LEXINGTON/CONCORD We depart from Boston and travel past the prestigious university, M.I.T. And make our first stop at Harvard Yard in Cambridge. Later on, we will view Cambridge Common, where Washington took command of the continental army, and drive along Tory Row, past the home of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow. Travelling through the historic countryside towns of Belmont and Lexington, we then follow the route of Paul Revere, as he warned the British were coming. Stand on Lexington Green where captain Jonathan Parker and 77 minutemen stood their ground against 700 of England's finest regulars. In Concord, journey past the homes of Hawthorne, Alcott, and Emerson as we make our way to the Old North Bridge, where the embattled farmers stood and fired the shot that was heard around the world.	Thursday/Friday/Saturday (Daily only on the following dates: 21 May -29 October 2017)	3 hours 30 minutes	USD57
BOSTON TEA PARTY SHIPS &amp; MUSEUM The Boston Tea Party was "the single most important event leading up to the American Revolution."
