Hong Kong Island Tour The Hong Kong Island Tour is an excellent orientation tour. A half day tour which takes in many of the main attractions on Hong Kong Island. As the City changes so rapidly, this tour enables visitors to refresh 'old memories' and for 'first timers' to create new ones.	Daily	5 Hours	HK$288
Iconic Kowloon & New Territories Tour Venture to the New Territories and parts of Kowloon to discover a different side of Hong Kong, one which is rich in history and culture. A visit to one of the remaining walled villages, Tsang Tai Uk built in the 1840s, will give you glimpse of how villagers lived in the past. Hidden amongst the high rise apartments of Kowloon, a sense of serenity can be found at Chi Lin Nunnery. This large Buddhist temple complex is constructed entirely of Cypress wood using traditional Chinese architectural techniques. Enjoy the tranquillity of the Nan Lian Garden, a scenic park built in the style of the Tang Dynasty. As found in all classical Chinese gardens, it includes the four elements rocks, water, plants and architecture. Another charming corner of the city is the famous Bird Market (Yuen Po Bird Garden). The Chinese traditionally liked to keep birds as pets and it was common practice to take their birds for 'walks' and show off their birds singing skills. This is followed by a visit to the Flower Market with its array of exotic plants. Often referred to as icons of Hong Kong, we take a break to enjoy a cup of milk tea accompanied by an egg custard tart.	Daily	5 Hours	HK$744

Hong Kong Foodie Adventure Join our local guide on a culinary journey through the streets of Kowloon for a truly unique Hong Kong evening out. Get to sample some the famous dishes of Hong Kong and find out why the locals are so passionate about their food. With such a large choice of food available in the city the locals are often asked: "Where should I go to eat?" What should I eat? How should this be eaten?" These questions are more will be answered on this walking foodie tour. For a cultural experience with a difference, our Fridley foodie guide will take you to explore the interesting sights of Jordan and Yau Ma Tei, and eat as the locals do.	Daily	4 Hours	HK$825
