City Sightseeing Sunset Tour – Cape Town The tour departs daily from stop 1 outside the Two Oceans Aquarium at the V&A Waterfront. Arrival time 30 min before the departure time. Use the 17:00 shuttle service from stop 5 in Long Street to connect to the Sunset Bus at stop 1 (outside the Two Oceans Aquarium at the V&A Waterfront). The Sunset Bus is not a hop-on, hop-off tour like the other City Sightseeing tours but it does stop at Signal Hill to give passengers the opportunity to watch the sun set over the Atlantic Ocean. Over the festive season, on the return to the V&A Waterfront, the bus takes a drive down Adderley Street for locals and visitors to experience the delightful display of festive season lights.	Daily Departs every 20 minutes from 17:15	02 to 03 hours R180pp R95 per child (Under 12 years) Rate excludes transfers
The Authentic Cape Town City Tour Take a cable car to the summit of the legendary Table Mountain, one of the Seven Wonders of the World, with views of the city and surrounding layout of this southernmost tip of Africa. Drive to Camps Bay, boasting a magnificent white sandy beach and once the hunting ground of Lord Charles Somerset. Wind your way along through Clifton, an exclusive residential area, home to some of the most expensive real estate in South Africa before meandering through Sea Point, the first commuter suburb of Cape Town and now a recognized Orthodox Jewish community. Enroute you'll see the sweeping silhouette of the Cape Town Stadium before passing down Adderley Street considered the main street of the central business district. The City Hall located on the Grand Parade is next up. Nelson Mandela made his first public speech after his release from the balcony of Cape Town City Hall. Drive past the Castle of Good Hope, a Provisional Heritage Site. You're passing Charly's Bakery, home of Charly's Cake Angels, stars of the Food Network Show before hearing a brief history of District Six enroute to a visit at the Company Gardens. It's bordered by numerous landmarks including the Slave Lodge, present day Houses of Parliament and St George's Cathedral, the seat of the Anglican church in South Africa. Hear about Greenmarket Square, the location for the well that was once the town's main water supply during summer months when streams from Table Mountain dried up, before a visit to the Noon Gun where you witness the historic time signal. The history of the Bo-Kaap and its people as you move up the cobblestoned hills to the Malay Quarter, and marvel at the ice-cream colours of the quaint Bo-Kaap homes. Our final stop. A jewellery showroom where we meet a master diamond cutter and witness the process of cutting and polishing a diamond. You may even witness the pouring of a gold bar!	Daily Departs from central Cape Town hotels between 07:35-08:30	Half Day (am) R615pp R310 per child (Under 12 years) Tickets for Table Mountain Cableway are not included

NAC Helicopters Cape Town Hopper Tour

Marvel at the scenic beauty of the Mother City’s famous landmarks while pristine views of the Atlantic Ocean unfold beneath you. The Hopper is quick yet breath-taking, making this the perfect tour if you’re short on time. Taking off from the V&A Waterfront, you’ll be awestruck by the Atlantic Ocean stretching out to the horizon and possible sightings of whales and dolphins below.

Further on, you’ll pass over Green Point Stadium – built for the 2010 FIFA Soccer World Cup – before seeing a bird’s-eye view of Robben Island on your right, and Table Mountain on your left.

Hugging the Atlantic coast, you’ll marvel at the Cape Town City Bowl, the Peninsula’s white beaches, and the Twelve Apostles mountain range. Then you’ll get to do it all again, heading back to the V&A Waterfront.

Atlantico Tour

Catch your breath as you fly over the pristine white beaches, deep azure waters and endless aerial views of the Atlantic coast along the Twelve Apostles, all the way to Hout Bay.

If you’re dreaming of admiring Cape Town’s vast ocean vistas, the Atlantico is an idyllic treat. Upon departing from NAC Helicopters’ base at the V&A Waterfront, you’ll soar over Cape Town’s scenic City Bowl, and out over the Atlantic Ocean.

To your right, you’ll see breath-taking blue-green water stretching past the horizon, interrupted only by the occasional whale or dolphin. To your left, the majestic

Table Mountain and the Twelve Apostles mountain range stand proudly, rolling down into the sandy white beaches and seaside suburbs of Clifton and Camps Bay – and further afield, Llandudno. You’ll see Seal Island on your right, before crossing into Hout Bay and Chapman’s Peak’s unspoiled cove. Then you’ll get to experience it all again, as you journey back along the Peninsula to the V&A Waterfront.
