Old and New Delhi

A half day tour to Imperial Delhi will include a visit to the Qutub Minar, which is the tallest stone tower in India. The Qutub Minar was started in 1199 AD by Qutub-Ud-Din Aibak and completed by the sultan’s successor and son-in-law, Iltutmish.

The building is 72.5 meters high and has 379 steps from the bottom to the top. The Minar is tapering with the diameter of the base which is 14.3 meters while the top floor is 2.7 meters.

The Qutub Minar is still the highest stone tower. The tour also includes a drive past the imposing India Gate, the Parliament building and the Rashtrapati Bhawan, the President’s residence.

City Tour combined with Old and New Delhi

Half day combined city tour of Old and New Delhi. The tour will begin with a visit to Raj Ghat, a simple memorial to Mahatma Ghandi, we then will drive past the Red Fort and continuing onto the Jama Masjid, one of Asia’s largest Mosques.

The Magnificent Red Fort is overlooking the river Jamuna which was built from 1638 – 1648, when the Mughal Empire was at its peak.

The tour then continues onto Jama Masjid and is viewed from the outside, people stream in and out of the mosque continuously and the presence of a nearby bazaar means that the area is rarely quiet.

The tour of Imperial Delhi will also include a visit to the Qutub Minar, which is which is the tallest stone tower in India.

Cycling tour of Old Delhi or New Delhi

Explore Old Delhi Once the home of Mughals and now the heart of India.

From the bike saddle we will observe the Capital city waking up to its chaos and tripping you into its transcendental history.

All delivered in an amusing storified format that will leave you awe struck and sometimes in laughter at times.

We will cycle through the narrow lanes of Old Delhi and see more than on foot discovering the narrow streets, hidden corners and historic monuments (La Quila, Chandni Chowk, Jama Masjid, fatehpuri masjid).

This experience will include breakfast and time to make new friendships and create memories.

New Delhi

It is the heart of India with its lush greenery, beautiful roads and breathtaking monuments, as well as give you a taste of true urban spirit.

We will cover Connaught Place, Rashtrapati Bhawan, India Gate, Agersen ki Baoli, Dhobi Ghat and Gurudwara Bangla Sahib.

Includes: transport services cycle, Helmet, safety jacket, English speaking guide, water and breakfast.

Heritage walk of Old Delhi

Chandni Chowl is the main street of the old city of Delhi.

Chandni Chowk, literally means moonlight square and drives its name from the fact that originally a canal ran down the centre of the street with pools at major intersections which would then reflect the moonlight.

Today the stream is gone and Chandni Chowk is an extremely busy road with schools. Chops, residences and places of worship.
