Grand Palace and Peterhof Park Peterhof is one of the oldest countryside residences of the Russian Tsars, world famous for its palaces and fountains and located by the shore of the Gulf of Finland. It is an outstanding example of palace architecture. There are 11 museums in Peterhof and you can also visit the small palaces too (Cottage, Monplaisir, Marli, Hermitage, Catherine's pavilion and Bath pavilion). The Grand Palace was built by Peter the Great, initially as a resting place en route to the Imperial naval base at Kronshadt. But the Tzar family were quick to recognize the attractiveness of the area and masterminded a vast estate intended to rival the famous gardens of Versailles in France.	Daily – Except Monday	5hours	€99
